DAY OF THANKSGIVING

President Roosevelt's Annual Proclamation.

ON NOVEMBER 29

Calls Upon All Citizens to Offer Thanks for the Nation's Blessings.

IT IS ANOTHER YEAR OF PROSPERITY

Washington, Oct. 24.—The president issued a proclamation naming Thursday, November 29, as a day of thanksgiving.

The text of the proclamation is as follows:

"A PROCLAMATION:

"The time of year has come when, in accordance with the wise custom of our forefathers, it becomes my duty to set aside a special day of thanksgiving and praise to the Almighty because of the blessings we have received, and of prayer that these blessings may be continued. Yet another year of widespread well-being has passed. Never before in our history or in the history of any other nation has a people enjoyed more abounding material prosperity than is ours; a prosperity so great that it should arouse in us no spirit of reckless pride, and least of all a spirit of heedless disregard of our responsibilities, but rather a sober sense of our many blessings, and a resolute purpose, under Providence, not to forfeit them by any action of our own.

Material well-being, indispensable tho it is, can never be anything but the foundation of true national greatness and happiness. If we build nothing upon this foundation, then our national life will be as meaningless and empty as a house where only the foundation has been laid. Upon our material well-being must be built a superstructure of individual and national life lived in accordance with the laws of the highest morality, or else our prosperity itself will in the long run turn out a curse instead of a blessing. We should be both reverently thankful for what we have received and earnestly bent upon turning it into a means of grace and not of destruction.

"Accordingly, I hereby set apart Thursday, the 29th day of November, next, as a day of thanksgiving and supplication, on which the people shall meet in their homes or their churches, devoutly acknowledge all that has been given them, and to pray that they may in addition receive the power to use these gifts aright.

"In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and causel the seal of the United States to be affixt.

"Done at the city of Washington this 22d day of October, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and six, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-first.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

"By the President: Elihu Root, Secretary of State."

Hunter Mistaken for Wild Turkey.

The first serious shooting accident of the season in Clinton county occurred Saturday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock, in the Brush valley mountains, near Tylersville. Ammon Walker, of Rebersburg, Centre county, and William Bletz, of Tylersville, were out hunting and became separated. Later Walker heard the call of a wild turkey and imitated the foul in order to lure it towards him. Bletz heard the imitation call, and thinking it was a turkey, answered it. The two men, unaware of each other's proximity, came closer together, when Bletz espying something moving through the underbrush, which he mistook for a turkey, fired a charge of "turkey shot" at the object. The next instant he was startled to hear cries of pain and groans coming from his companion, Walker, who received a large portion of the load of shot in his head.

The injured man was assisted to the road, a wagon was procured and he was taken to his home at Rebersburg, where Dr. J. W. Bright removed the several shot and dressed the wounds. One ball entered the forehead, another the cheek just below the eye, while a third entered the mouth.

While painful, the wounds are not considered dangerous by the physician, who expects the patient to recover, unless something unlooked for should develop.

NATURAL GAS AT SNOW SHOE.

A Hissing Sound Gave Harrison Holt's Secret Away to a Hunter.

Natural gas has been discovered in the Snow Shoe coal regions, about 20 miles from Philipsburg. Harrison Holt, who owned considerable land in the vicinity, put down a test well some time ago, but after going a considerable depth the project was abandoned. The latest operation was near Pine Glenn, on the lands of the late Dr. Stuart, whose widow lives now in Bellefonte. Leases were obtained on a number of properties in that vicinity, and last summer a test well was put down by a Mr. Strong.

HUNTER FOUND GAS ESCAPING.

After going to a depth of 2,450 feet the driller suddenly stopped operation, on the pretext, that he did not have the proper appliances to go any deeper. The well had been cased, and at the top was eight inches in diameter. A stout wooden plug was driven in the opening and the operation abandoned. A hunter, who resides at Pine Glenn, was passing by this abandoned well recently when he heard a hissing noise. Investigating, he found that the noise came from the plug in the top of this well, and that there was a strong odor of gas escaping.

BIG BLAZE SHOT UP.

Applying a match a blaze of two feet spurted from a small leak at the side of the plug which burned freely until extinguished. The form of the jet indicated that it was escaping from a minature opening under high pressure. Since this well has been drilled and plugged various strangers have visited that section to get leases or buy the land. The owners, however, offer only to lease the coal outright, but nothing more. That is, they reserved all right to either gas, coal or other minerals.

LATER

There is considerable excitement at Pine Glenn over the discovery of natural gas on the D. G. Stewart lands near that place. Since the article published in our paper a few days ago a number of reliable persons visited the abandoned gas well to ascertain whether or not the reports as given out were true. All heard the roar of the escaping gas from a leak in the side of the wooden plug. A number of times a match was applied and a large flame sprung up that could only be distinguished with difficulty. As the large wooden derrick stands over the well there was danger of burning it down and parties will not be allowed to ignite it hereafter.

On Tuesday David Stewart, of Bellefonte, returned from a special trip to Pine Glenn to satisfy himself whether there was a gas well. He reports the gas is there as described and lit it himself. The question to be determined is as to the quantity and whether there is sufficient to give it a commercial value. As this well is down only 2450 feet it is encouraging to go deeper and make other tests in that section.

A leading citizen said in our hearing this morning that, from his knowledge of oil and gas business, he believed a test well put down at Six Mile Run would reveal the presence of gas in paying quantities. Why can't the test be made.

Girl, Signing Marriage Document, Drops Dead.

As she was about to sign her name to her sister's wedding certificate, Miss Myrtle Golder, 17-year-old daughter of William Golder, who was formerly foreman of the the Goodyear mills at Galeton, fell from her chair and died without regaining consciousness.

Miss Golder acted as bridesmaid at her sister's wedding, which occurred in Buffalo. She was one of the gayest and happiest of the party. She sat down to make her signature with the flush of youth upon her cheek.

Suddenly the pen dropped from her hand and her face became ashen.

"I'm so tired," she said, and dropped to the floor. She was buried in the gown that she wore as bridesmaid.

May be a Hard Winter.

The unreasonable cold weather of the past week with snow falls so early, indicates a long and hard winter to follow the unusually hot and humid summer.

Fortunately, there is no trouble in the coal fields and not likely to be, but the winter will be very hard on the poor, and while work is plenty for those who are willing and able to perform it, there will be no little suffering among the sick and afflicted through no fault of their own.

ACTRESS' GEMS STOLEN

Anna Held Robbed of Jewels.

NO CLUE TO THE THIEF

Satchel Which Contained her Savings for Years, Stolen from Train.

SHE IS AT PRESENT GRIEF STRICKEN

Cleveland, O., Oct. 24.—The police of this city and a well-known detective agency are working diligently to discover the whereabouts of $150,000 worth of jewels which Anna Held, the actress, reported were stolen from her on a Pennsylvania train while coming into Cleveland early Monday morning. The gems, said to include many valuable pieces, were stolen from Miss Held's stateroom while she and her husband, Florence Ziegfeld, Jr., were temporarily absent from it. The jewels were in a small hand satchel, which also contained over $6000 in money and papers, bank books, etc., which Miss Held said she valued at $100,000.

When the case was first reported to the local police they were incredulous, but Chief Kohler says he is now convinced that the robbery was committed. Miss Held gave a description of two men on the train she said she suspected, and the detective agency said they had got track of one of them in Baltimore. Miss Held said she believed she was followed by the two men from Baltimore to this city. The actress appears grief-stricken over her loss and says the satchel contained her entire fortune.

The more valuable pieces stolen consist of a string of 63 pearls valued at $35,000, a 15-inch corsage piece of diamonds and emeralds valued at $25,000, a string of 51 pearls valued at $25,000, a dog collar with four brooches of diamonds, and eight strings of pearls valued at $25,000, a diamond brooch worth $6000, and some 30 other articles consisting of rings, chains of diamonds, necklaces, etc., valued at from $500 to $5000 each.

Fell From a Tree.

Monday afternoon Elworth Waite, who resides on a farm near Jacksonville, met with a very painful accident. He was picking apples in his orchard when he fell from the tree. He was able to get up and walk around, but in his bewilderment, instead of going to his house wandered a mile and a half away to the home of Henry Glossner. Here he was asked a number of questions to which he was unable to give his friends an intelligent answer. He seemed to forget where he had been and what had happened. His friends saw at once that something was wrong and so at once they took care of him. Dr. Kurtz of Howard was quickly summoned, and upon examination found that two of his ribs were broken and he was otherwise badly injured about the head and face. His condition at first was considered quite serious, but he is now getting better. He is about forty years of age.

About Carrying School Books.

Mothers are cautioned by a physician who has had much experience with children's hospitals not to permit their children, who carry a load of school books back and forth from home and to school every day to carry the load always in the same hand or over the same shoulder, as many instances have been known where the habit lengthened the arm or enlarged the hand disproportionately, or caused the child to carry one shoulder higher than the other. If the books are carried first in the right and then in the left hand every second day, or the bag of books suspended from the shoulder changed about as frequently, the danger will be met, and overcome. Besides, the weaker hand will be strengthened.

Mrs. Jeff Davis Dead.

Mrs. Jefferson Davis widow of the president of the confederacy, who had been ill for a week at the Hotel Majestic in New York, died at 10.25 o'clock Tuesday night. Death was due to pneumonia induced by a severe cold which Mrs. Davis contracted upon her return home from the Adirondacks, where she had spent the summer months. She was 84 years of age and during the early part of her life was a very prominent lady.

A SUDDEN DEATH.

Miss Katie Hoover, a Well Known Trained Nurse Expires Suddenly.

This community sustained a severe shock Thursday afternoon when the sad news became public of the sudden and unexpected death of Miss Katie Hoover, at the home of E. J. Eckenroth on East Howard street.

Miss Hoover who is a trained nurse, was employed taking care of Mrs. Eckenroth. She had partaken of a hearty dinner and was in the best of spirits. Between two and three o'clock she was sitting in a rocking chair beside Mrs. Eckenroth's bed when suddenly she was noticed to lean forward. Just then the doctor who is attending Mrs. Eckenroth entered the room just in time to prevent Miss Hoover from falling to the floor. She was carried into the next room but died in a few minutes.

The deceased was about forty years of age and was the daughter of David and Mary Hoover, of Bush Addition, both of whom are dead. She has been employed for years as a trained nurse and was very successful. She was a member of the Methodist church.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Cornelius Hazel, of Pleasant Gap, and the following brothers: Robert, David and Frank of Altoona; William of Axe Mann.

The remains were taken to the home of her brother William, at Axe Mann, where the funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in the Union cemetery at this place.

MORDECIA BENNER.

Dies at His Home at Oak Hall—Grandson of Gen. Benner.

On Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Mordecia Benner, a well known citizen and a member of one of Centre county's pioneer families, passed away at his home in Oak Hall. His death was due to cancer of the liver and was the culmination of a long illness.

The deceased was born on the old Benner homestead at Rock Forge and was 55 years of age. He was the son of Henry Benner, and a grandson of Gen. Philip Benner, of Revolutionary days. He was engaged in farming and was a highly esteemed citizen and a member of the Methodist church.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters and three sons. He also leaves two brothers and one sister, namely, Harvey, of Buffalo Run; Philip, of Houserville; Mrs. William Close, of Oak Hall.

The funeral will take place Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Interment in the Meyer cemetery.

Shot Proves Fatal.

Hawk Run has been the scene of considerable excitement during the past couple of days, winding up with a serious tragedy. On Sunday evening a Slavish wedding took place at the home of Andrew Kondrach. A bunch of Slavs who had not been invited to the wedding, numbering nine or ten, and one of whom is said to have been a jilted lover of the bride, came to the home and created an old-fashioned row.

Monday morning Mike Kondrach, son of Andrew Kondrach, came to Chester Hill and swore out a warrant for the arrest of nine of the disturbers. The warrant was placed in the hands of Constable James Finnigan, who called Constable David P. Lawhead, of Madera, who happened to be here, to assist him in making the arrest. About 2 o'clock in the afternoon they went to Hawk Run on this mission. One of the party had been arrested, but made his escape. The officers then went to the place where Lods Cardollo boarded and placed him under arrest. He at first became ugly and drew a knife on the officers. He finally cooled down, and consented to go along. Constable Finnigan turned the prisoner over to Lawhead and started to go after another man. Mr. Lawhead and Cardollo had only gone a short distance from the house, when the latter struck the officer a blow in the breast and started to run. Lawhead cried, "Halt, or I'll shoot," but he continued running. The officer then fired, but stumbled while doing so, and instead of shooting him in the legs, as expected, the bullet took effect under the left shoulder, penetrating the heart, and resulting in the instant death of Cardollo. Realizing what he had done, in company with Constable Finnigan, who heard the shooting and hurried back, the coroner was summond at once and an inquest held. Mr. Lawhead then telephoned the Sheriff, and said he would be at Clearfield on the next train to give himself up and furnish the necessary bail.

OUR CHOICE FOR SENATOR

Henry C. Quigley the Republican Candidate

A STRONG PLATFORM

On Which He Solicits the Support of the Voters of the 34th Senatorial District.

MANY REFORMS ADVOCATED BY HIM

Henry C. Quigley, of Bellefonte, has come out with the following manly announcement of the principals on which he asks your support for State Senator. We call your special attention to paragraph seven.

MY PLATFORM

TO THE VOTERS OF THE 34TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT:

As a Candidate for the Senate, I deem it but fair in asking your support at the polls November 6th, 1906, to unreservedly pledge myself to work and vote in the interest of the whole people, and support by voice and vote the following vital measures likely to receive legislative action:

1. Increased appropriations for public schools, particularly centralized township schools and township high schools. The boys and girls of the rural communites are entitled to the same privileges enjoyed by those of our boroughs and cities.

2. Increased State aid for the improvement and maintenance of the public roads.

3. Right of eminent domain for trolley and electrical roads, with privilege of carrying freight and produce.

4. Return of the entire amount received from tax on moneys at interest and from liquor licenses to counties for relief of local taxation.

5. The proper regulation of corporate powers and the time-limitation of corporate franchises for public utilities.

6. The enactment of laws to prevent rebates and unjust discrimination in freight rates, and a uniform rate of fare for passengers of two cents per mile.

7. The fact that the state has lately purchased large tracts of unseated lands for forestry purposes has a tendency to reduce the volume of property for taxation and the burden of taxation is therefore increased upon the individual taxpayer. If elected I pledge myself to use all honorable efforts for the purpose of requiring the state to pay its proportionate part of taxation on said lands.

If elected to represent you in this Senatorial District, I promise to devote my whole time faithfully, earnestly and intelligently for good legislation and oppose with all my power anything to the contrary. I am under no pledge or obligation to any person or organization, and am free to serve your interests without restraint, which I unhesitatingly promise to do. Soliciting your support, I remain, obediently yours,

HENRY C. QUIGLEY,
Bellefonte, Pa

VENERATED BY ALL.

William L. Wilson, of Stormstown, Dead at Eighty-eight.

In the death of the venerable William L. Wilson at his home at Stormstown, on Wednesday morning, October 17, the community in which he had resided for eighty years lost a valued and respected member. Mr. Wilson died of congestion of the lungs, at the age of 88 years, 1 month and 12 days.

The deceased was born September 5, 1818, about two miles from Clearfield. With his parents he moved in 1826 to Half Moon valley, into a stone house built by his grandfather in 1810, about four miles from Stormstown. This old house is even now occupied by the family of his brother, John Wilson, who died there October 4, last. Mr. Wilson was united in marriage to Eliza J. Gray in 1845, and shortly after they moved to the farm adjoining Stormstown, where they continuously resided. Mrs. Wilson died May 29, 1895.

To their union thirteen children were born, of whom the following nine survive: Robert A., of Tyrone; Isaac, of Callao, Peru; George G., of Portland Oregon; John P., of Elevs, Wisconsin; Harry of Altoona; Benner, of Beech Creek; Harriet, Mary and Alice, at home.

Mr. Wilson's parents were Quakers, being strict in conformance to the Friends' system of worship, and his mother and sister were exhorters in their church. Mr. Wilson, however preferred to join the Methodist church with his wife, and he was a consistent member, living a pure and consecrated life. In politics he was a strong advocate of Republican principles. His first vote was cast for Wilson Henry Harrison. Of Mr. William's genial social nature many Bellefonte people can testify from intimate acquaintonce with him. He was charitable to a fault. He was generally beloved and will be remembered most kindly. The funeral was held Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Thrown From Bridge by two Highwaymen.

Suspended 50 feet in midair from a railroad bridge, and having been attacked by highwaymen, who attempted to hurl him from the structure, was the plight of William R. Carter of Altoona, when found by two street car employes early Sunday morning.

Carter, who was on his way to work before daybreak, was attacked by the footpads when about the middle of the bridge. Finding nothing of value on the person of their victim the robbers seized Carter and threw him from the viaduct.

In going over the edge of the bridge Carter's Foot caught between the girders and in this position he was suspended 10 minutes before his cries for help were heard by the traction men, who hastened to the bridge and released the half-crazed man. Believing their victim had plunged to the ravine below the highwaymen disappeared in the darkness and all trace of them was lost.

Carter was overcome when conveyed to his home, but aside from nervous shock is none the worse for his experience.

Joy in Centre County on Turkey Outlook.

The reports from all over this county are such as to turn every pessimist in the county into an optimist. The crops have been abundant, far above the average, and now comes the report that the turkeys, which for several seasons have been scarce and consequently high in prices, are plentiful and every one is assured of their Thanksgiving and Christmas roast.

Besides this, the crops of chestnuts and apples beat all records in this section. The buckwheat crop is large, hogs are plenty, and visions of buckwheat cakes and country sausage, with maple syrup on the side, loom up in the near future.

To cap it all, everybody has work who wants it, and the outlook for a good winter with plenty to eat could not be better.

Those who live to eat can find it in this county, and of the very best.

A False Report.

The rumor that seems to have been current recently that one of the Academy students had typhoid fever was entirely without foundation. There has not been a case of typhoid fever among the Academy boarders since Rev. J. P. Hughes assumed charge of the school in 1868. Mr. Fullerton had a bilious fever, spent five days at the hospital and is now attending to his school duties as usual.

CUBA SWEPT BY CYCLONE!

Damage May Reach $2.-500,000

THE CRUISER BROOKLYN

Hit by Storm, Dragging her Anchor and Grounded in the Mud—Later She Got Away.

DEAD NUMBER ABOUT TWENTY

Havana, October 19.—A cyclone of unprecedented severity, accompanied by a terrific downpour of rain, swept over the provinces of Havana and Pinar del Rio Wednesday night and resulted in twenty deaths in this city and the serious injury of a dozen or more persons. The damage is estimated at fully $2,5000,000. The dead are all Cubans of the poorer class.

The United States cruiser Brooklyn dragged her anchor until her stem grounded in the mud off La Regla. She got off Friday morning without injury.

The storm caused havoc and confusion among the shipping in the harbor. Many buildings were badly damaged and nearly all the trees in the city and suburbs were uprooted.

The 4,000 American soldiers and marines at CampiColumbia were put to great inconvenience by the storm. Nearly all the 400 tents in camp were blown down, but there was little actual damage. Harry Fosdick, an army teamster with the Twenty-eighth infantry, from Sioux City, Ia., sustained probably fatal injuries. He was crushed by a tree which fell through the baracks in which he was sleeping. Fred Sutcliffe, of Fort Shelling had his hand seriously injured and Thomas Shonealt, of Reading, Pa., sustained injuries to his back.

One hundred and fifty tobacco barns in the Alquizar district have been destroyed. The recently planted tobacco crops also have been seriously damaged. Enormous damage is reported from the Guira section, the centre of the banana and plaintain industry. Many small farmers have lost their all and are in great distress.

Matanzas City was practically uninjured, only a few houses there sustaining damages. No loss of life has yet been reported from outside Havana, but a message received says five persons were injured at Nunez.

All street car service in Havana was paralyzed and communication with outside points was impossible. The telegraphic service was annihilated.

The first train to come into the city since the storm was the Santiago express, which arrived Friday afternoon. Passengers report that the devastation does not reach far to the eastward.

Havana recovered quickly from the effects of the storm, and except for the presence of gangs of men replanting uprooted trees and the sight of wreckage in the harbor, one would not know that such a severe storm had blown over this end of the island.

Gay crowds are promenading the streets and lounging in the cafes, apparently quite oblivious of the fearful experience through which the city has just passed. Street car traffic was fully resumed Friday.

DIED SUDDENLY OF HEART DISEASE.

How frequently does a head line similar to the above greet us in the newspapers. The rush, push and strenuousness of the American people has a strong tendency to lead up to valvular and other affections of the heart, attended by irregular action, palpitation, dizziness, smothered sensations and other distressing symptoms.

Three of the prominent ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made are recommended by some of the leading writers on Materia Medica for the cure of just such cases. Golden Seal root, for instance, is said by the UNITED STATES DISPENSATORY, a standard authority, "to impart tone and increased power to the heart's action." Numerous other leading authorities represent Golden Seal as an unsurpassed tonic for the muscular system in general, and as the heart is almost wholly composed of muscular tissue, it naturally follows that it must be greatly strengthened by this superb, general tonic. But probably the most important ingredient of "Golden Medical Discovery," so far as its marvelous cures of valvular and other affections of the heart are concerned, is Stone root, or Collinsonia Can., Prof. Wm. Paine, author of Paine's Epitomy of Medicine, says of it:

"I, not long since, had a patient who was so much oppressed with valvular disease of the heart that his friends were obliged to carry him up-stairs. He, however, gradually recovered under the influence of Collinsonin (medicinal principle extracted from Stone root), and is now attending to his business. Heretofore physicians knew of no remedy for the removal of so distressing and so dangerous a malady. With them it was all guess-work, and it fearfully warned the afflicted that death was near at hand. Collinsonin unquestionably affords relief in such cases, and in most instances effects a cure."

Stone root is also recommended by Drs. Hale and Ellingwood, of Chicago, for valvular and other diseases of the heart. The latter says: "It is a heart tonic of direct and permanent influence."

"Golden Medical Discovery," not only cures serious heart affections, but is a most efficient general tonic and invigorator, strengthening the stomach, invigorating the liver, regulating the bowels and curing catarrhal affections in all parts of the system.

HUSBAND'S BRUTAL CRIME

Set Wife's Clothing On Fire in Attempt to Burn Her Alive.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—Screaming with pain and terror and with her clothing ablaze, Mrs. John Doran ran from her house into the street in Wilkinsburg, near here, and after a policeman had extinguished the flames she was taken to a hospital in a critical condition, where she told a story of her husband's cruelty, charging him with deliberately attempting to burn her alive. Doran is under arrest.

According to Mrs. Doran, her husband had been drinking, and when he came home he began to abuse her. She says that Doran hurled a lighted lamp at her and then knocked her down. Then, she declared, he seized a towel which had been ignited from the broken lamp and deliberately set her clothing on fire. Her statements are substantiated by a 13-year-old daughter who witnessed the father's cruelty. Mrs. Doran's hair was burned to the scalp, and her clothing above the waist was burned off, scorching the skin in a frightful manner.

KILLED IN STREET CAR CRASH

Ran Wild Backward Down Hill and Hit Car Following.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 22.—One man was killed and another hurt so seriously that he will die, while six other persons sustained cuts and bruises as a result of a street car collision in Knoxville, a suburb of this city. The dead man is Michael Sullivan, a conductor, and the fatally injured man is Lewis H. Davis, treasurer of a foundry and machine company of Carrick, a neighboring borough of Knoxville.

Sullivan was standing on the rear platform of his car with Davis as the car was ascending a steep grade. In some way as yet unexplained the motorman lost control of the car and it slid backward down the hill, crashing into one that was following. The platforms crumbled like an egg shell as the cars came together, and both men's legs were severed. Sullivan died in a few minutes. Davis cannot live.

BODY OF LEPER CREMATED

People at Pickens, W. Va., Say Raschid Was Poisoned.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Oct. 22.—The body of George Raschid, the Syrian leper, was cremated at Pickens. The shanty in which he had been staying was set on fire and the body was consumed with it. Many people at Pickens say the leper was given poison in his food. Pickens citizens opposed the presence of the man with the loathsome disease.

WARRANT FOR EMERY

James P. McNichol Begins Action to Recover For Alleged Slander.

HE DEMANDS $250,000 DAMAGES

Criminal and Civil Action Started By Philadelphia Contractor Against Man Who Accused Him of Buying Legislative Votes.

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—The threatened civil and criminal action against Lewis Emery, Jr., candidate for governor on the Lincoln Party-Democratic ticket, following his charge that State Senator James P. McNichol purchased votes in the famous Marshall-Koontz speakership fight of 1901, has been started. Mr. McNichol, through his attorneys, had a warrant issued for Mr. Emery's arrest on the charge of criminal libel. This was supplemented by civil proceedings in common pleas court, No. 3, Mr. McNichol filing an affidavit in support of a suit for $250,000 damages for slander.

The warrant for Emery's arrest was issued by Magistrate McCleary, and a copy of the affidavit, together with a letter from McNichol's lawyers, were forwarded by messenger to the fusion candidate. The letter was adroitly worded to put the next step up to Candidate Emery. It notified him of the issuance of the warrant and requested that bail be entered by him for a hearing at his convenience. By this stroke Mr. Emery has no option but to demand an immediate hearing or else subject himself to the criticism that he fears the effect of the proceedings on his campaign.

In the words of Attorney Shields, McNichol's chief counsel, "the whole matter is up to Mr. Emery." The criminal action will give him an opportunity to cross-examine his accuser when the case reaches court.

The fusion candidate was also notified of the civil proceedings, and requested to enter an appearance. No capias was issued, Attorney Shields explaining that he will wait until Mr. Emery reaches the city this week before serving papers. Mr. McNichol's affidavit is as follows:

Mr. McNichol's Affidavit.

"James P. McNichol, being duly sworn according to law, doth depose and say that one Lewis Emery, Jr., wickedly, maliciously and unlawfully contriving and intending to injure, villify and prejudice the deponent, James P. McNichol, and to bring him into public contempt, scandal, infamy and disgrace, and to deprive him of his good name, name, credit and reputation, and otherwise to injure and aggrieve him, on the 15th day of October, 1906, wickedly, maliciously and unlawfully, did state and transmit to the reporters and publishers of certain newspapers published in the city of Philadelphia, county aforesaid, to wit: The Public Ledger, the Press and the Philadelphia Record, and thereby caused and secured the actual publication therein on the 15th day of October, 1906, false, scandalous, malicious and defamtory words of and concerning this deponent, that is to say:

"'Now we come to 1901. Don't you recollect, they did not have enough Republicans to elect Marshall speaker, and they gave it up? I know personally that Quay gave it up. He said: 'We're whipped in this fight.' But Jim McNichol, of Philadelphia, said: 'Wait; let me go around on the outer edges and see if I can't find something.'

"'After awhile he went back to Quay and said:

"'We're not whipped.'

"'Why, what have you got?' said Quay.

"'I've got five Democratic votes,' said McNichol, 'and I got them cheap—only $15,000 apiece.'

"Thereby then and there meaning and intending by the name "Jim McNichol" this deponent, and thereby then and there meaning and intending to charge that this deponent with the crime of bribery, to the damage, scandal and disgrace of this deponent, to the evil example of all others in the like case offending, and contrary to the act of assembly in such case made and provided, and against the peace and disnity of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

In his affidavit upon which suit for damages was begun Mr. McNichol fixes the financial injury to his reputation at $250,000 "and upwards."

BABY MURDER IN BALTIMORE

The Police Suspect Systematic Murder of Infants.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 22.—Investigations following the finding of the dead body of an infant last Friday lead the police to suspect that some one is practicing in this city the systematic murder of very young babies. The body found last Friday was subjected to an autopsy, as a result of which the post-mortem officer declares that the infant was murdered by being strangled by a piece of tape found about its neck. The body was that of a white male child, and, while it had undoubtedly lived, the murder was, the authorities say, committed soon after birth. The little body was wrapped in a bolster cover when found by a colored watchman in a residence in course of construction for a very prominent Baltimore family. The location is one of the most fashionable in the city, being just opposite the home of the well-known Maryland club, and this, coupled with the fact that within a week the body of another supposedly murdered baby was found in the immediate vicinity, lead the police to suspect that they are on the track of a person or persons who are making a business of baby murder.

STEAMER HARD ASHORE

Lumber Laden Ship Off Cape Henry Will Be Total Loss.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 22.—The steamer George Farwell, timber laden, from Jacksonville, Fla., for New Haven, Conn., is ashore off Cape Henry and will probably be a total loss, but all on board were saved. Captain J. D. Chisholm and his crew of 15 men were landed from the wrecked steamer by the life saving crews from the Cape Henry and Virginia Beach stations.

The steamer, laden with 575,000 feet of cypress timber, went ashore in a gale Saturday night. She left Jacksonville Friday, October 12. From the start she encountered heavy head winds and was forced to go far out of her course. At her best she could not make more than seven or eight knots an hour and most of the time she crept along at a speed far less than this. The steamer sunk during a heavy fog and the life savers hurried to the scene. On the second shot from the line gun the crew of the steamer caught the line, and 12 seamen were hauled through the surf in the breeches buoy. There were left on bord Captain Chishold, the first and second officers and the chief engineer.

The prisoner is said to be a college-bred man, and a linguist, and through his accomplishments he met and gained the confidence of some of the most prominent American families, and was able to pass the alleged worthless paper without arousing suspicion.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 23. — In the presence of a distinguished company, Mayor E. Clay Timanus struck several blows with a gilded pick and with the event the actual work on Baltimore's great sewerage system was begun. A bond issue of $10,000,000 has been provided to defray the expenses of the work, which, if the promises of the engineers do not fail, will, seven years hence, give the city probably the most elaborate and perfect system of sewerage, both storm water and sanitary, ever constructed. By legislative requirement, the effluent finally discharged from the disposal plant into an arm of the Chesapeake bay must be 95 per cent. pure.

Changes In British Cabinet Expected.

London, Oct. 22.—According to the Morning Post the close of the autumn or the beginning of the next session of parliament is likely to see important changes in the cabinet. Sir Henry Campbell-Bannermah, the premier, probably will be raised to the peerage and will lead the Liberals in the house of lords, remaining, however, as premier. This would enable the aged Marquis of Ripon to retire as Liberal leader in the lords, and H. H. Asquith would become Liberal leader in the house of commons.

Paderewski's Musical Bell-boy.

Rosamond Johnson, of Cole and Johnson, composers of that once popular song, "Under the Bamboo Tree," once held a position as bell-boy in Young's Hotel in Boston. This place he once nearly lost, through taking the liberty of playing Paderewski's "Minuet" for the great pianist. Paderewski, who was staying at that hotel, had rung for the bellboy, and young Johnson answered the call.

Being so fond of music, he made bold to ask the great composer and pianist to play the "minuet" for him. Paderewski could not understand English then, and the boy thought from his gesticulations that he wished him to play it. So he sat down at the piano and commenced playing. Paderewski's manager happened to enter the room just then, and, enraged at the bell-boy's presumption, threw him out of the room and went directly to the management and had him discharged.

As soon as he learned what had been done, Paderewski, who had been pleased with the lad's playing, sent for the manager of the hotel and had Johnson reinstated in his position.

Demands That Emery and Black Shall Meet Charges.

SCATHING REVIEW OF RECORDS

Prohibition Leader's Hot Shot Directed at Democratic Nominees For Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

Dr. S. C. Swallow does not propose that Lewis Emery, Jr., the Democratic candidate for Governor, shall be permitted to longer ignore the charges that have been made from time to time upon the stump by himself and Homer L. Castle, the Prohibition nominee for Governor.

He has reiterated these charges in another demand that Emery meet each and every one of them, and he says that he will persist in that direction until Emery shall be heard from specifically upon each of these allegations.

In a formal statement to the public, Dr. Swallow, among other things, says:

Facts Established.

In these two months' fight the following facts have been pretty thoroughly established:

That our party ran a narrow chance of becoming forever disgraced and its existence endangered by accepting Lewis Emery as its candidate; but fortunately discovered his true character in time to reject him.

That this has been and is destined to continue the dirtiest campaign in the history of the state, owing to the character of the man who is seeking promotion under the false pretense of being a reformer.

That he admits being interested in breweries; that he contributes to them as to churches, schools and hospitals; that he furnishes intoxicants to his family and his guests; that he drinks and treats at public bars; that his son is secretary and treasury of a brewery, and that the Elk county halls, who are largely interested in breweries, were the strongest factors in securing his nomination. Nor has he yet denied the allegation of several newspaper men that he was incoherently drunk in Philadelphia on the night of the Lincoln convention that nominated him, and was put to bed by his friends to prevent futrehr disgrace and scandal. A fact admitted to at least two witnesses at two different times by the Hon. Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press, both editor and paper now fervently supporting Mr. Emery for Governor.

Emery's Oil Company.

It has been further established that Emery's oil company made, used and forged oil-barrel stamps, thus cheating the state out of many thousands of dollars and endangering the lives of oil consumers by palming off on them oil at 110 and 120 fire test that should have registered 150.

That at a time when it could have been prevented, there was admitted to partnership in Mr. Emery's oil business representatives of the Standard Oil Company, and that he thus became "cheek by jowl" with the Durhams, Macks, Murphys and McNichols, whom he affects to politically despise and to be fighting; just as he boasts of fighting Quay for 20 years, but also boasted in his Harrisburg speech that "we were good friends all that time." It was a sham battle for revenue only, as is his fight with the Standard Oil Company. He admits selling his oil in Germany at six cents or eight cents a gallon at a profit, and compels Pennsylvanians to pay 10 cents a gallon, thus following Standard Oil prices instead of competing with them. He said in a speech a night or two ago that Rockefeller would make a subscription to a church and advance the price of oil a penny a gallon with which to pay the subscription.

Now, while no one pretends to defend John D. and his methods, yet does not Mr. [illegible] subscriptions to breweries and advance the price of oil with which to pay his subscription? He boasted at York of being rich. Did he not secure it largely by building oil refineries in pretense of competing with the Standard, only to voluntarily and repeatedly sell to them at enormous profits, leaving small individual operators who had tied to him wholly at the mercy of the merciless Standard octopus?

Secret Understanding.

And now there is accumulating evidence that there is a secret understanding with certain of the Standard Oil company representatives in the Emery Oil company that Mr. Emery should use the Standard as a "bogy" with which to frighten voters into electing him, while the Standard representatives in Emery's company are pledged that when once elected, their Governor shall co-operate with that great public robber in further humiliating the people.

It has been proven from the legislative record that Mr. Emery is not a friend of labor, as is shown by his vote both in the house and the senate against an eight-hour law and against the establishment of hospitals for miners and laborers.

It has become apparent from circulars sent out by the Anti-Sumptuary League that not only the liquor forces of Pennsylvania, but of the whole country are focusing their funds in this campaign for the election of Emery and Black. The league argues that the Prohibition party and sentiment must be destroyed by destroying Castle, and that this can best be done in the election of Emery. That he is a safe man for their interests; that his committal to local option is based on its being in his own language "equitable," and that in private conversation he has declared that it would be injuitous to permit the people to vote out a business whose owners have property rights, established and fostered by the license laws. The circular further argues that if in an emergency the local option bill is passed and Emery is forced by his Lincoln constituents to sign it the league can easily defeat it at the polls. There is no doubt of their ability to do so, since the blood money of the whole nation would flow to the Keystone state in such a contest.

Hard Words For Black.

It has been established

That Jere Black, the corporation lawyer now stumping the state against corporations, though he denied it, took nearly $20,000 of the taxpayers' money of York county for collecting from a delinquent Democratic county treasurer about $73,000. He admits taking $18,500, but the books show nearer $20,000. A part of this he took without the consent of even the Democratic members of the board of commissioners. Now having denied that he took the money, and it having been proved on him, he stands condemned.

It is also now well established that Black, first and without provocation, ignorantly repeated in one of his speeches, seven full-fledged falsehoods, furnished in a roundabout way by a derelict Methodist preacher, now in the employ of the state, concerning my court trial nearly 10 years ago and my church trial of five years ago, both of which grew out of my expose of the grafters of that day, in neither of which was I convicted, as he falsely alleged, but was in all triumphantly vindicated.

And he has willfully and maliciously repeated these falsehoods when he knew they were falsehoods, though he did not have the courage to accept my challenge and repeat them in his Harrisburg speech, when we were ready to arrest him, at a point where we could prove his language, if he denied the newspaper reports. Black has shown himself a skulking coward.

And the charge that he made in his York speech after the questions propounded to him there by the Prohibitionists are formulated by Republicans, which was followed by the signed statement, by the Prohibition executive committee, that the questions were not formulated as he said, brands the candidate for Lieutenant Governor as an untruthful man.

As to Emery's Associates.

Dr. Swallow, after referring in anything but complimentary terms to some of Mr. Emery's associates on the stump, adds:

All around Mr. Emery are the moral wrecks produced by the influence of his insincere and questionable life, hid under the mass of fake reform that begins and ends in self. He is to be pitied when 254 ministers of his home conference, where he is known, pass unanimously a resolution condemning his brewery sentiments and methods, and a two-third vote of the Pittsburg conference do the same at their session at Butler.

If ever the Republican party vaults into the reform saddle under a disguise, as the Democrats and Lincolnites have done, we shall again pay most attention to it, as we are now paying most attention to the Emery-Black fakes. And if the necessity for such a misfortune comes, we will again cheerfully accept the odium of being called "The Democratic Annex." But we are not, and never have been, and never will be, either. We are bent on electing Castle. Hurrah for Homer L. Castle.

BROWN SHOULD RETIRE

Glance Into the Record of One of Emery's Reform Spellbinders.

REBUKED BY SUPREME COURT

Official Reports Tell of Transaction In Which Disgruntled Secretary of Internal Affairs Figured.

Isaac B. Brown, Secretary of Internal Affairs, who is taking the stump for Mr. Emery, is another of that gallant band of reformers who are always questioning the honesty and integrity of other men.

More than 20 years ago Mr. Brown was a "reformer," and vigorously opposed the Republican Organization in Pennsylvania. He was later given a public position at Harrisburg, and for the last 20 years he has held one or another position in the public service.

Mr. Brown is one of the few officers of the state whose name has been indelibly printed upon the public court records of this state.

On Page 515, of the Pennsylvania State Reports, 155, is recorded the case of Goodyear vs. Brown, appellant, in which it was necessary for Justice Williams, of the Supreme Court, to say:

"Such dealings by an officer of the state are to be regretted, because of their necessary consequences, and a proper consideration for the public security and for the confidence of citizen in the officers of the state forbid them Public policy cannot tolerate such dealings by an officer with his own department or office. It will not uphold them."

A Man That Failed.

The facts of this case briefly stated are about these: In the year 1891 the Goodyear Lumber Company was reporting in Potter county, Pa., cutting and sawing timber. It had secured by purchase title to a number of sections of land, among others one known on the records of the state as No. 4714, embracing about 900 acres. The operations at the time were being conducted on an adjoining parcel.

Isaac Brown, then Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs, attempted on January 29, 1891, to patent No. 4714, and had a deputy surveyor for Potter county make a survey of this 900 acres. The records show that the Goodyear Company and its producers in the ownership of the 900 acres of land which Brown attempted to secure had been paying taxes on this land for almost a century. There never had been any atempt to cloud the title, or raise any question as to its legality. As Justice Williams says, in his opinion, Isaac B Brown made an effort to patent and take title to this land "with the fullest knowledge on the part of the secretary and his deputy, that the land was claimed under an older title." A protest was made to the board of property of Pennsylvania, but was denied. Brown received his patent May 7, 1891. Goodyear then went into the courts.

Judge Olmstead, of Potter county, sustained Goodyear's title to the property. Brown appealed to the Supreme Court, and on May 22, 1893, Mr. Justice Williams handed down an opinion declaring the patent held by Brown to be invalid. Scoring Mr. Brown in this very unmistakable language:

"When the trial was reached in the court below it turned out that the deputy surveyor who had located the warrant of 1891, and who had the rightful custody of the records of that office was put in an unfortunate position for his disinterestedness as a witness by the fact that his wife had become a part owner of the land under a grant from the Deputy Secretary.

"An experienced surveyor from an adjoining county, whose familiarity with the original lines in that region made his testimony of great importance in reaching a conclusion as to the proper location of No. 4714, had been placed in the same predicament by the same expedient. His wife was also a part owner, deriving her title from the Deputy Secretary.

Rebuked From the Court.

"This remarkable combination may have been accidental. We presume it was innocent. Nevertheless, to litigants whose property is at stake, and to spectators, measuring the acts of men by the common business standards, it suggests possible dangers and temptations on which we will not enlarge.

"Such dealings by an officer are to be regretted, because of their necessary consequences, and a proper consideration for the public security and for the confidence of citizens in the officers of the state forbid them. Public policy cannot tolerate such dealings by an officer with his own department or officer. It will not uphold them.

"It follows that the warrant issued to the Deputy Secretary of Internal Affairs confers not title as against a claimant under an older survey to the land in the controversy. The warrant was issued contrary to public policy."

Leishman's Audience With Sultan.

Constahtinople, Oct. 15.—The audience last Friday with the sultan of the American ambassador, John G. A. Leishman, lasted 45 minutes. The sultan looked well and seemed to be in good spirits. He spoke at some length, referring to the fact that he was dieting. Both Baron Marschal von Bieberstein, the German ambassador, and Mr. Leishman discussed pending questions with the sultan. There probably will be no more audiences with his majesty for five weeks, owing to the Ramazan and Bairam observances.

THE WOMEN' FEDERATION.

Interesting Sessions at State College—Lively Discussion.

State College, Pa., Oct. 16th.—This morning's session of the State Federation of Women's Clubs was taken up principally with the reports of the various committees, some of which drew forth some lively discussion but while a half dozen or more of the members tried to hold the floor at the same time they all kept their heads, even if they had to be called to order frequently for overstepping parliamentary rules.

The president, Miss McKnight, of Pittsburg, is still absent and it is feared that she will be unable to attend any of the meetings of the federation. Miss Myra Dock, of Harrisburg, reported a considerable amount of work done by the Forestry Committee. After much discussion the federation passed a motion that the members of the Legislature, through the various clubs, be requested to make a liberal appropriation for the home for consumptives near Mont Alto.

WILL APPEAL TO LEGISLATORS.

The report of the committee of industrial conditions affecting women and children caused a lengthy discussion. The legislation committee emphasized the efficacy of letters to and personal interviews with the members of the Legislature. The report of the civil service reform committee was followed by a talk on "the merit system in State institutions," by Mrs. Ross of Cambridge Springs.

The chief feature of the afternoon was the talk on domestic science by Mrs. S. T. Rorer. Many question were asked and much interest was shown in the work which Mrs. Rorer represents. During the whole session Mrs. Rudolph Blankenburg, of Philadelphia, kept a watchful eye on the parliamentary proceedings. Mrs. G. G. Pond spoke briefly, advocating the establishment of a federation scholarship for young women in State College. By a vote of the delegates the matter was referred to the Executive Committee, who will probably establish the scholarship as soon as financial conditions will permit.

Two excellent talks were given in the evening, the one by J. Horace McFarland of Harrisburg, who is president of the American Civic Association, the other by H. A. Surface, of Harrisburg, the State Zoologist. Mr. McFarland spoke on school gardens, while Mr. Surface gave an illustrated lecture on insects.

WAS EVE JUSTIFIED?

At Wednesday night's session Miss Agnes Repplier, of Philadelphia, spoke on the subject, "The Temptation of Eve." She said in part.

Some time ago I saw in a French comic journal a cut entitled "The True Temptation of Eve." Eve without clothes and without care, sat under the fatal apple tree with the unbitten apple in her hand, while coiled in front of her was the serpent, bolding in his mouth a fashion plate depicting one of those marvelous creations with which we are all familiar in such works of art. Poor little naked Eve, beholding this triumph of Parisian millinery, must of necessity lift the apple to her lips.

The temptation was too great to be resisted. The price of sin was too splendid to be refused. Ever since this one dominent impulse has held good, that while men have replaced beauty of dress by garments of stern utilitarianism, women have never in the long centories abated one jot of their concentrated and anxious interest in clother. They dare not if they would; too much is at stake, and they play into nature's hand by following instinctively or intelligently the great principles of self-adornment.

Miss Repplier expressed herself as being highly pleased with State College, particularly with the surroundings. "I believe," said she, "that the parents of the State will soon come to realize that they can scarcely find a better place for the education of their sons and their daughters."

Concerning Charity.

Thanksgiving Day brings us the appeal of those excellent organized charities that are indispensible in modern civilization. Out of our own abundance it behooves us to aid every worthy association that benefits the poor, the orphan and the aged. We ourselves shall not receive the rich benefit we ought if we limit our alms to these sources. Out of our own basket and store, in delicate, silent and unobtrusive ways, shall we not add at this time to the joy of those who never ask help, who suffer without complaint and who would sooner die than be assisted from the relief funds of any society. Most of us have friends or kindred of this sort, and we may not evade the precious chance Thanksgiving brings us to send them something that will brighten their lives. Each home should have other homes in mind that may be united in a chain of invisible beneficence at this season.—Margaret E. Sangster in Women's Home Companion for November.

EDITORIAL.

Who threw the last brick? Was it a Berry brick? It struck a glass house.

LINCOLN Party of Berks county has resolved to support Stuart and the Republican State ticket.

Capt. Barclay was mustered out of service to his country in 1865, and he will be mustered in again when he takes his seat in congress.

Two great States are in two great contests—New York facing Socialism with Hearst. Let us stand by Roosevelt and the Republican ticket,

You voted for Roosevelt. Would you support the splendid policy inaugurated by him in the interests of the people. Then vote for Barclay.

THE campaign is fully opened to this county. The time for hesitency is passing, and with it many clouds. Why not stand for good Republican candidates in State and county?

ALL Republican candidates on the State and county tickets stand for the reforms passed by the last extra session of the Legislature and those promised in the future. Why change?

John Wanamaker Charles Emery Smith and Rudolph Blankenburg, attested the purity of Stuart's official life when he retired from the Mayorality of Philadelphia. Why not now?

HENRY C. QUIGLEY, is a leading member of the bar, was reared in the Bald Eagle valley on a farm, is the poor man's friend and will meet every requirement in the upper house of Representatives. Quigley will vote for every honest measure and against every dishonest one.

Capt. Barclay's public and private life is an open book. He is not compelled to make excuses for political chicanery and questionable deals because there have been none in his entire career. Such a man will give this congressional district an untainted and uncorrupted representation at Washington.

BERRY'S BREAK GIVES "REFORM" A BAD SETBACK

Idol Shattered In That Famous Brick Yard Deal.

STATE TREASURER IS SCORED

Leading Newspapers of Pennsylvania Condemn Transaction With Institution Favored With State Funds.

State Treasurer Berry has not succeeded in getting the people of Pennsylvania to take his view of his recent brickyard financial transaction that "it is a private affair," with which his fellow citizens have nothing to do.

The sensational developments in connection with this matter have caused no end of talk and adverse comment throughout the state. Mr. Berry's course has met with almost universal condemnation.

The attempt of Mr. Berry and his friends to mitigate the effects of this expose by setting up the plea that the three other members of the state treasury board had forced the selection of the Harrisburg Trust Company as a depository is laughed at, because of the well-known fact that, while the board does vote on the selection of depositories, the State Treasurer alone determines the amount of the public funds which shall be allotted to each depository at the seductive rate of 2 per cent.

One year ago, under Republican administration of the treasury, the Harrisburg Trust Company had only $220,000 of the general fund of the state, or about one-third of what Berry has alloted to it. The fact that the Harrisburg Trust Company has been favored by Mr. Berry with one of the largest deposits in the state during the period in which that same company has been acting as trustee for the bond issue of the Fields Brick Company, in which Mr. Berry is the largest stockholder, will make it difficult for many persons to believe the State Treasurer has not employed his control over the public funds as a means of rewarding his business friends.

Has Been Most Liberal.

Berry's explanation that he went to Harrisburg to float his bonds because he did not want people in Chester to know his company was in the market for real estate has had little effect in lessening the sensational character of the news that he is doing business on a large scale with the holders of state deposits.

It is unfortunate for Berry that he should have found it necessary, in case he really had to go outside of Chester to find some one to finance his project, to have picked out the one bank in the whole state to which he has been most liberal in the distribution of the peoples' money.

A Quick Change is This.

In this connection, the comment of leading newspapers of Pennsylvania is interesting.

Last year the Democrats, Prohibitionists and me-too Lincolnites rang all the changes of fraud in connection with the state treasury and the borrowing of money from the Enterprise Bank by Republican politicians, says John J. McLaurin, in the Oil City Derrick. Homer L. Castle stumped the commonwealth to sound the praises of William H. Berry, the Democratic nominee for State Treasurer, and denounce to a finish William H. Andrews and other Republicans for getting funds from a bank that held state money on deposit. Berry was to "lift the lid," if elected, and reveal a terrible condition of affairs. He won out enough weak-kneed Republicans to give him the victory, taking sufficient stock in the hue and cry to cast their ballots for Berry.

The new Treasurer, who had posed as a reformer of the thirty-third degree, implacable and immaculate foe of the practices he and his henchmen in the campaign had "damned from Dan to Beersheba and return," assumed his office in due time. Promptly he lifted the lid, and it paralyzed him and the whole herd of corruption shriekers to find every cent of the $13,000,000 in the treasury. What next?

William H. Berry has scracely warmed his official chair when, as disclosed within the last three days, he did precisely what William H. Andrews had done—borrowed money from a bank having state deposits. His case was especially aggravated because of his position as custodian of the state's cah. Andrews was not a state officer, yet he was hounded and traduced as cash. Andrews was not a state officer: crime.

Berry as a Borrower.

From the Harrisburg Trust Company, in which he has placed about twice the amount of public money his Republican predecessor saw fit to deposit with that corporation, William H. Berry has borrowed $50,000, giving as security a mortgage upon a brickyard and real estate in Chester county, alleged not to be worth nearly this snug amount! The same trust company is on his bond for $500,000, making "only a nominal charge" for this important service, as Berry himself admits. It would be interesting and edifying to know just what interest or commission the company has actually obtained for the loan. Berry has outdone Andrews completely, and the shock to the fusion band of office hunters is indescribable. William H. Berry, the man who went on the platform last week to tell how $2,000,000 graft would be unearthed in the furnishing and equipment of the capitol," is the latest "reformer" to fall by the wayside, "hoist by his own petard."

It might gratify the public to know exactly the financial relations between Mr. Berry and the Harrisburg Trust Company. Suppose he make an affidavit that he receives no personal benefit from keeping a big sum on deposit with the company, that he pays the usual rates for the $50,000 loan, and that none of the money so borrowed was given him some time before the mortgage was executed.

Who'll be the next fellow who cries "wolf" to be "weighed in the balance and found wanting?"

Berry's Brick Yard.

State Treasurer Berry is a shattered idol, says the Lancaster New Era. Not only has he been proved to be a deliberate falsifier in his political speeches, but he has also been exposed as a fraud and humbug. When he went through the state last fall, seeking office, he laid the greatest stress upon the fact that prominent Republicans had borrowed money from banking institutions in which state money was deposited. He did not dare charge that the money was not borrowed in a legitimate way, protected by proper collateral, and repaid when due, but the fact that anybody interested in politics should borrow money for his private business in Berry's view presumed a crime. That, of course, was before Berry had secured his election by false pretenses and the alluring prospect of making a profitable investment in a brickyard venture had presented itself. The change of conditions seems to have worked an entire change of view in Mr. Berry. As State Treasurer he saw nothing improper in going to a Harrisburg trust company, which enjoyed a large deposit and had gone on his bond for a nominal consideration, and from it securing a large personal loan, although the same act on the part of a Republican would, of course, have been a grave crime. But now that he has started out to explain the transaction, he appears to be getting into deep water. He says he went to the Harrisburg bank, with which, prior to becoming State Treasurer, he never did any business, because he desired to keep the deal a secret in his home city of Chester, yet the facts show that the details of the transaction were attended to by a Chester trust company, which precluded the possibility of its being a secret in his home town. Mr. Berry must look for a better excuse.

We fear Mr. Berry is a good specimen of the latter-day "reformer," who tries to make up in pharisaical pretension what he lacks in everyday honesty and truthfulness. Another idol has apparently been shattered and another fraud exposed.

Why Was Berry Elected.

It is of no earthly advantage for fusion organs to attempt a protection of State Treasurer Berry, declares the Titusville Herald. He has been caught with the goods in his possession. After parading his virtues in flowery rhetoric, he is forced to admit himself guilty of the very misdemeanors he charged against others. He has placed the state's money where he could borrow readily to promote personal interests. He is bonded by a company "on very nice terms," which has more than $700,000 of state funds on deposit. It was to correct such wrongs as this that Mr. Berry was elected. What do the Republicans who elected him think of that character of reform?

Berry Gets Tangled.

Berry has got his Pharisaical robe in the dirt and has become seriously tangled, as his own statements indicate, says the Meadville Tribune, Republican. He says that when he was about to assume the duties of his office, a guarantee company demanded $2500 a year to guarantee his bond, and that, in the emergency, the Harrisburg Trust company agreed to become his bondsman for a nominal sum. He also says that when the board of officers, of which he is one, met to designate the banks in which the state funds might be deposited, he voted against selecting the Harrisburg Trust company as one of the state depositories. Let it be remembered that, while the depositories are selected by a board, no one except the state treasurer has any right to say how much of the state funds shall be deposited in any one of these banks. Mr. Berry, after the Harrisburg Trust company was made a depository against his vote, deposited in that bank over $700,000, being a larger sum than was deposited in any other bank in the state. After this, Mr. Berry borrowed $50,000 from this bank, giving as security a brick yard. The ordinary reader will begin to think Mr. Berry considers a public office a private snap, but, looking at the matter in the light of his own admission it represents him as devoid of the ordinary honor which any gentleman is expected to have.

Some will think that when he "lifted the lid" it swelled so nice that he couldn't resist the temptation to get into the soup. There is where he is now, and he doesn't seem to have much skill in crawling out. Let the humbugged Republicans who deserted their post of duty and voted for Berry last year, take a look at him now and make amends by future fealty to the most honest party the country ever knew.

THE TEN VIRGINS.
By W. A. Krise.

Five were wise for their lamps were
Trimmed,
Their vessels filled with oil,
Their labors on the earth were done
They rested from their toil.

The foolish five had bought no oil
Their lamps were out of trim,
Their hopes which once seemed very bright,
Were clouded now and dim.

The bridegroom came the door was shut,
The wise were all within,
The foolish then were all shut out
To suffer for their sin.

They cried aloud to let them in
Unto the marriage feast,
"I know ye no" the bridegroom said
And then their hopes all ceased.

Then let us all be ever wise
And keep our lamps trimmed up,
That we may eat the bread of life
Drink from the Master's cup.

The Father who hath loved us so
He gave his only son,
Hath promised if we faithful be
The Victory shall be won.

No man is better informed on all matters concerning the district than is Capt. Barclay, Republican candidate for Congress. He has lived in the district all his life and can be depended upon to give the people faithful and impartial service when he gets to Washington.

—Hunters and other visitors to the woods should not forget that the trespass law passed by the legislature of 1905 prohits any person going upon the land of another for any purpose whatever, without the consent of the owner of the land provided the said owner has posted proper caution notices in conspicious places on his property. In the eager hunt for game hunters are likely to allow the provisions of the law to slip their memory. The chief purpose of this law is to prevent trespass on the lands of coal companies, but its provisions apply to all lands. Farmers whose property has been damaged by thoughtless amateur hunters have taken advantage of this law and have pretty thouroughly placarded their lands. It will, therefore, be well for hunters when they go into the woods to keep as sharp a lookout for tresspass notices as they do for the game they are in search of.

"It is the little rift within the lute which ever widening makes the music mute." It is just a little rift in health of a woman often which gradually takes the spring from her step, the light from her eyes the rose from her cheek and the music from her voice. Perhaps the bugbear which has frightened the woman from the timely help needed at the beginning has been the dreaded questions, the obnoxious examination, the local treatments of the home physician. There is no need for these. Nor is there need for continued suffering Dr. Pierce's favorite prescription can be relied on by every woman suffering from what are called female troubles to renew the health and cure the disease. Women are astonished at the results of the use of this medicine. It not only makes weak women "robust and rosy cheeked," but it gives them back the vigor and vitality of youth.

"I suffered with la grippe for seven weeks, and nothing I could do or take helped me until I tried Peruna.

"I felt at once that I had at last secured the right medicine and I kept steadily improving. Within three weeks I was fully restored, and I am glad that I gave that truly great remedy a trial. I will never be without it again."

In a letter dated August 31, 1904, Mrs. Marsh says: "I have never yet heard the efficacy of Peruna questioned. We still use it. I traveled through Kentucky and Tennessee three years ago, where I found Peruna doing its good work. Much of it is being used here also."—Henrietta A. S. Marsh.

Labor's investigation into the fitness of Capt. Barclay to represent the 21st congressional district at Washington, reveals the fact that he was always an extensive employer of labor, looked after his men when they were sick or injured, paid them good wages and kept many of them in his employ for 30 years or more No laboring man can refuse to vote for Capt. Barclay because of his attitude.

REWARDS HOSPITAL

Woman Gives $5000 to Institution For Withholding Her Name.

Somerville, N. J., Oct. 24.—A woman who was brought to Somerville hospital after being badly injured in an automobile accident on Sunday, October 14, has sent a check for $5000 to the hospital authorities because they respected her wish that her identity be not revealed. The woman was registered at the hospital as "Mrs. Turner, of Princeton," but she admitted that this was not her right home and begged the hospital authorities not to permit her identity to become public. Her motive in wishing secrecy was ascribed partly to her unwillingness to have it known that she had been motoring on Sunday, and partly because she did not wish newspaper notoriety. She had been thrown from her car while riding between Princeton and Woods tavern, and when taken to the hospital had a broken arm and other injuries. She left the institution a few days ago.

LIQUOR LEAGUE IN SESSION

Delegates Make Liberal Donations to Salvation Army.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 24.—The annual convention of the National Liquor League of the United States began here. A feature of the opening session was an address by a Salvation Army woman of Newark, who has been engaged in work among saloons of this city for several years. She appealed for funds for the Salvation Army and the delegates present responded with liberal donations.

Former State Senator Charles Schweicardt, of St. Louis, treasurer of the league, said that opposition to liquor selling usually crystalized in words rather than in deeds. At present, he declared, the opposition had attained tidal wave proportions, but he expressed the opinion that it has reached its limit and in the future would gradually disappear.

MEXICAN REBELS EXECUTED

Is it Known?

It is certainly true, as it is very evident to those who have knowledge of the fact that God has sent one of His servants to deliver a message of vital interest to every one in our city. The deliverance of this special message will never be repeated in Bellefonte. It is the last time for us. There is no shadow of doubt that those who receive the message will have occasion for joyful thanksgiving here and hereafter forever. "He that hath ears to hear let him hear, Rev. Samuel J. Boston of Pittsburg, in the Presbyterian chapel this Thursday and Friday evening at 7:45 p. m., and "more to follow."

"Thy Neighbor."

BRYAN SEES VICTORY AHEAD

Predicts Next House of Representatives Will Be Democratic.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The following letter from William Jennings Bryan to Chairman Griggs, of the Democratic congresisonal campaign committee, explaining why he will be unable to visit Cynthiana, Ky., and incidentally predicting the complexion of the next house of representatives, was made public and is as follows:

"Dear Mr. Griggs—I am very sorry that it is impossible to go to Cynthiana, Ky., but as I wired you my time is all taken up until election. I wish you would convey my regrets to our Democratic candidate for congress in that district (Mr. Kehve) and say to him that I am very anxious for his success. The indications are that we shall have the next congress, and then our Democratic house can send to the senate remedial measures and poin issues with the Republicans if they refuse to adopt them. The Republicans are so under the control of predatory wealth that they will not support the president when he attempts to follow Democratic advice and secure some reform. The president does not go far enough in the direction of reform, but his political associates are all the time throwing obstacles in his way. The best way to support the president is to elect Democrats in the place of Republicans, for the record shows that the Democrats have stood by him better in the senate and house than the Republicans have."

TO REOPEN WRECKED BANK

Reorganization of Philadelphia Real Estate Trust Co. Goes Through.

Philadelphia, Oct. 24. — Announcement was made by George H. Earle, Jr., receiver of the defunct Real Estate Trust company, that all of the assents to his plan for reorganization have been received and that he will go into court and ask to be discharged as receiver. The wrecked bank will then be reopened, and the board of directors will elect four new members, one of whom will be Mr. Earle.

The Real Estate Trust company failed on August 28, on which date Mr. Earle was appointed receiver. The collapse was brought about by excessive loans made by the institution's president, Frank K. Hipple, to Adolph Sigel, a promoter, on insufficient security. Hipple committed suicide.

Almost immediately after his appointment as receiver Mr. Earle began working upon a plan to rehibilitate the wrecked bank, and upon its completion submitted it to the stockholders and depositors for ratification. The plan provides for the payment to depositors of one-third of their claims in cash and two-thirds in preferred stock, which is to be preferred both as to principal and dividends. The directors of the institution contributed $2,500,000 to aid in the reorganization.

MURPHY'S CHARGES FALL FLAT

New York Grand Jury Refuses to Indict On Campaign Gossip.

New York, Oct. 24.—At the conclusion of an investigation by the grand jury of charges made by Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany leader, that Tammany Hall candidates had been "held up for cash considerations" by the managers of the Independence League, it was announced that the charges had fallen through completely. The official announcement to this effect declared that the charges were "merely campaign gossip, and the grand jury will not dignify the proceedings by making a presentment as a result of its inquiry." The grand jury announced that, in its opinion, there was nothing wrong in an offer made by Congressman Goulden to pay the expenses incurred in getting signatures to the Independence League petition in his behalf. William Astor Chanler, who had been subpoenaed to appear before the grand jury, was not called upon to testify.

AWFUL CONDITION OF INSANE

1,630 Crowded Into Filthy, Dilapidated Building at Havana.

Havana, Oct. 22.—Governor Magoon visited the National Insane Asylum and discovered a deplorable state of affairs there. One thousand six hundred and sixty persons of both sexes are crowded into filthy and dilapidated buildings with a capacity for 400 persons only. They are sleeping on broken cots relics of the last American occupation. Congress made an appropriation to enlarge the asylum, but the money was never expended. The conditions are very little better than under Spanish control. Governor Magoon will take steps to erect additional buildings and remedy the abuses.

The exodus of the American marines in Cuba began today (Monday). Seven hundred marines sailed on the cruisers Minneapolis, Newark and Denver. Six hundred will remain at Camp Columbia, while 1200 are still scattered throughout the island.

PAIR OF STORKS FOR PRESIDENT

Presumed That Some Joker Shipped Them to Him.

New York, Oct. 22. — Some joker sent President Roosevelt a pair of storks on the Hamburg-American liner Amerika, which arrived here. The prophetic, mystic and sacred birds, associated with whose timely visits is the preservation of the human race, arrived in the 'tween decks. They are addressed to "President Theodore Roosevelt, Washington, D. C."

They were dispatched from Hamburg, but Captain R. Sauermann and his officers know naught concerning them. In fair weather the boxed storks were brought outside and their cake was placed on the sun deck. A joker posted upon the crate a placard reading: "Beware! this is a most dangerous bird."

Earthquake Damages Bridge.

Portland, Me., Oct. 22.—Two earth shocks destroyed about 100 feet of a temporary highway structure which crosses the upper harbor. Accompanying the rumbling was the sound made by the cracking of the timbers of the temporary structure and the bridge began to sway. The bridge continued to sway and sink until the second shock, when a portion of it gave away with a lurch and sank about six feet. This portion also slid towards the harbor, a distance of eight feet. The railing was broken and apparently the planking of the bridge was the only thing that held the piling in place.

STEAMER BLOWN UP BY MINE

Russian Ship Struck Floating Bomb and 180 Persons Were Drowned.

London, Oct. 22.—A dispatch received here from Vladivostok by Lloyds Agency says the Russian wooden coasting steamer Warjagin struck a floating mine and foundered on October 20. Some of her passengers and crew were saved, but 180 persons were drowned.

Spain Wants New Concordat.

Madrid, Oct. 22.—A note, drawn up by Minister of Foreign Affairs Gullon, denouncing the concordat of 1851 and inviting the Vaticon to open negotiations for the conclusion of a new concordat more in keeping with present ideas, will be presented to the Vatican. The government is absolutely determined that the Associations bill be passed and its provisions carried out. In case the bill is thrown out of the senate, which is not probable, the government will ask King Alfonso to dissolve parliament, and it believes it will have the complete support of the country in such a step.

Burton Starts For Jail.

Abilene, Kan., Oct. 22.—Joseph R. Burton, formerly United States senator from Kansas, whose sentence to serve six months in the county jail at Ironton, Mo., recently was upheld by the United States supreme court, left his home for St. Louis, where he will surrender to the district court prepared to go to jail. He was accompanied by Mrs. Burton and their adopted daughter, who will live in Ironton during Mr. Burton's incarceration.

Died of Stab Wound.

Washington, Oct. 22.—William McKim Miles, 27 years old, died at a hospital here after being stabbed under mysterious circumstances at his home in the southwest section of the city several hours before. R. L. Groff was arrested later in connection with the case.

Will Make a Strenuous Campaign.

New Orleans, Oct. 22. — Charles Scott began a 500-mile horseback ride through Mississippi in his campaign for the Democratic nomination for governor. He will ride from the Tennessee line to the Gulf of Mexico, giving special attention to towns which are not reached by rail. Mr. Scott has five opponents for the nomination.

Explosion Kills Three Miners.

Pittsburg, Kan., Oct. 23 — Three Austrian miners were killed and a fourth was probably fatally injured by an explosion of powder in a mine of the Southwestern Development company, near Mineral. The miners were engaged in getting shots ready for the shot-firers and had several open "jacks" of powder, each containing 12 pounds of powder. A spark from a pit lamp in the cap of the men fell into one of the open kegs of powder, causing an explosion. Sheets of flame which swept down the entry burned every man in the chute. The dead men were roasted alive.

Endurance Contest Carried Them Over Distance of 57 Miles.

Pittsfield, Mass., Oct. 23.—Two balloons, Centaur and L'Orient, which remained here after the aero-auto race between balloons and automobiles for the Hawley cup had been declared off last Saturday, participated in an endurance contest which carried them many miles over Northwestern Massachusetts and Southern Vermont. The balloon L'Orient outsailed the Centaur, landing in the little mountainous town of Jamaica, in Windham county, Vtrmont, 57 miles from the start. The Centaur came down in Bennington, 30 miles from this city.

The occupants of the Centaur said on landing that they considered their object accomplished and that their trip had been highly successful from a scientific standpoint. The Centaur reached a height of 6200 feet. The L'Orient went 8000 feet into the air.

Above the clouds the heat was so intense that outside clothing had to be discarded. One time the thermometer registered 106 degrees.

Twenty-five minutes after the Centaur landed in Bennington an automobile driven by Floyd Knight, of this city, stopped by the side of the car. Half an hour later an automobile owned by C. F. Bishop, of Lenox, arrived on the scene. Both these machines had followed the balloons, as an experiment, although both airships were out of sight much of the time.

NO OELRICH WILL CONTEST

Heirs of Millionaire Clubman Will Settle Their Difficulties.

New York, Oct. 23.—The threatened contest over the will of Herman Oelrichs, which leaves his entire estate to his brother and sister, cutting off his widow and 15-year-old son, probably will be amicably adjusted, according to a statement made by Mrs. Oelrichs' counsel. The will was to have come up for probate Monday, after having been adjourned several times, but Mrs. Oelrichs was not ready, and her counsel, James W. Gerard, asked for another adjournment. It was granted, October 24 being fixed as the date. At the conclusion of the brief court session Mr. Gerard said that there probably will be a settlement.

Home For Sick Actor People.

Chicago, Oct. 23.—A home for actors and actresses who have been unfortunate enough to contract pulmonary troubles is to be founded and maintained in Colorado. The plan originated with George M. Cohan, the actor who announced that he would subscribe $5000 to start the fund, and in addition to this he will give a special matinee performance each week as long as he appears before the public, the gross receipts of which will be turned over to the fund. Mr. Cohan will ask all the leading actors and theatre managers throughout the country to co-operate with him in carrying out the idea.

MR. BONAPARTE AS DEFENDANT

Secretary of Navy Resists Paying Half Costs For Opening Clogged Sewer.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 23.—A tin can two inches in diameter by four inches in length, which, together with an accumulation of kitchen refuse, it was alleged by the plaintiff, had stopped up a sewer, was responsible for the appearance in the city court here of Secretary of the Navy Charles J. Bonaparte as defendant in a suit for $27.80, brought by Mrs. Elizabeth A. Merryman, of 203 East Lafayette avenue. This sum represents what Mrs. Merryman avers is Mr. Bonaparte's share of the expense entailed in removing the cause of the stoppage of the sewer, it having been alleged that the can came from an adjacent house owned by him. Secretary Bonaparte, who is one of the largest individual owners of property in Baltimore, refused to pay the bill on the ground that the work had been done without consulting him. Moreover, it was claimed that Mrs. Merryman was not a property owner and therefore had no right to sue in the first place. The secretary was a witness for himself, and during his testimony an amusing colloquy occurred between him and Mr. Merryman, the husband of the plaintiff. Mr. Bonaparte was stating his position in the dispute. He remarked at one point that he had been informed that Mr. Merryman was a very litigous person.

Mr. Merryman instantly interrupted with a demand to know who had said he was litigous; he was no more litigous than was Mr. Bonaparte, he declared hotly. He insisted that the secretary had no such information.

The court reserved decision. This is the second trial of the suit, the first one resulting in a victory for Mr. Bonaparte.

PICKED UP MEN AT SEA

Steamer Rescues Four From Raft Made Out of Logs.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 23.—The Mallory line steamer Colorado, which arrived here, had as passengers Joseph Melson, Charles Olsen, Charles Anderson and Otto Brink, who were picked up at sea 90 miles off Key West. Meison says he saw 79 men drowned from a houseboat which was wrecked off Long Key, Fla., in last week's storm. The four men who were found by the Colorado's crew were standing on a raft made out of six logs and were in the water waist deep at the time. Melson said he and the other men were on a houseboat at Long Key, when the hurricane struck them and blew the [illegible] to sea. It soon [illegible] and out of the 125 people on board, 79 were drowned right before his eyes. The other 42 have since been taken into Jacksonville, Fla. The men suffered terrible hardships. They were employed by the Florida East Coast railway on their extension work through the Florida swamps from Miami to Key West.

HUGE TRUST MAY FAIL

Financiers Do Not Look With Approval On Plan of Packers.

New York, Oct. 23.—That a $500,000,000 meat packing concern is in the course of organization, backed by English capital, was confirmed by Frederick Sulzberger, of the firm of Schwartzschild & Sulzberger.

While declining to enter into a discussion of the matter, Mr. Sulzberger said that his packing house had been invited to join, but had absolutely refused to be a party to the merger. The Schwartzschild & Sulzberger company takes this stand because such a merger could only be operated in direct violation of the anti-trust law. Mr. Sulzberger would not admit having heard that the western interests had endeavored to obtain capital from New York bankers and had been turned down by them for fear of the strong arm of the government.

Through one of the most prominent bankers of this city it was learned, however, that an attempt had really been made to obtain the $500,000,000 in this city to finance the merger on the proposition that the holding company would move to London for charter purposes.

Storm Ruined Banana Crop.

New Orleans, Oct. 23.—The steamer Anselm, which arrived, reported that so great was the destruction of the hurricane which preceded the Cuban storm in point of time and struck the coast of Spanish Honduras, that not a bunch of bananas was to be secured from that coast. The Anselm had 4000 bunches of bananas aboard, although she usually carries about 15,000.

MOB THREATENED THEATRE

Colored People In Philadelphia Protest Against "The Clansman."

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—Under most unusual conditions "The Clansman" was produced here at the Walnut Street theatre. The colored clergy of the city had made a formal protest to Mayor Weaver against the production of the play, claiming that "lynchings have been encouraged by the play." The mayor refused to take any action.

About a half hour before the theatre opened Ninth and Walnut streets, where the playhouse is located, were packed with colored people. Director of Public Safety McKenty, who, realizing the danger, had hastened to the scene, begged the ministers, who seemed to have complete control of the multitude, to disperse the mob.

While the director was at the scene a riot call was sent in and five police patrol wagons brought half a hundred policemen to the theatre.

The colored ministers surrounded Director McKenty and demanded that he stop the play. The director delivered a brief speech, asking the crowd to disperse, and saying that he would endeavor to have the play discontinued. This seemed to have a soothing effect on the crowd and it slowly dispersed.

Early in the evening a colored man attempted to create a disturbance in the theatre. He was arrested, but the police had considerable difficulty in rescuing him from the crowd in the gallery.

LONG SEARCH FOR DRILL BIT

Company Spent Hundreds of Dollars to Recover Valuable Tool.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 23. — After a search of two months a diamond drill "bit," valued at $1600, has been found in the Brisbine mine of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad company. The drill was being used in boring through a solid wall of coal into an adjoining vein. It became detached and fell through a crevice in the workings. Six men were placed at work to recover it. These men have worked for two months and have received hundreds of dollars in wages in the search which at last has been successful.

Sunday a driller named Walter Schooley was drowned by the capsizing of a raft in the Susquehanna river at Pittston. He had a $3100 diamond drill "bit" strapped to his body, which has not been recovered.

ALTOONA FIRE-SWEPT.

Mishler Theatre, Rothert Building and Elks' Hall Destroyed.

Altoona was visited by a fierce and costly conflagration about 5 o'clock this morning, whereby three of the newest and finest buildings in the city were destroyed by fire. The fire started in the Rothert building, Twelfth avenue and Twelfth street, and soon communicated to the handsome Mishler theatre adjoining it on the west. Then the flames attacked the partly completed Elks' hall nearby. Before the firemen could make any headway against the flames, all three of these magnificent structures were destroyed. The interiors were burned and only the blackened walls remained.

On the opposite corner of Twelfth street the towering buildings of the Altoona Trust company also caught fire but it was saved atfer considerable damage had been done to it. The Mishler theatre was valued at $160,000, on which there was $90,000 insurance. The Rothert building was also a beautiful and costly business block, and the Elks' hall was to be a fine structure.

Shadowed Homes.

Never dawns a bright anniversary that has not its shadowed side. Never is there a home to which sooner or later grief does not come. At the Thanksgiving board this year, as in other years, there will be vacant chairs, and the household of the sorrowing continually is recruited by those to whom has come the pang of loss. It is not easy to understand why trials so often come to those who seem to need no harsh discipline, and from our limited experience we cannot tell why it is that one is taken and another left. One thing we may do, and that is trust. We may safely trust a love that is greater than ours, and may safely leave our vanished dear ones in the care of Him who gave them to us.

If our hearts were but more simple,
We should take Him Word,
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord.

A Cold Winter.

A Kittanning man has predicted the coming winter will be the hardest one in twenty years. He says there are many signs. The fact that corn husks are very thick and the stalks lean to the west are good ones. The fogs have already begun searching the bottoms of mill ponds and mud holes to find out the deepest places. The geese, ducks and chickens are growing a coat of fur under their feathers and are rubbing their feet to harden them up. All one-eyed owls are leaving the country a month earlier than usual and the bobtail squirrels are laying in a good supply of provisions for this cold winter. The farmers who will take the time to investigate will find that all the toad stools on the logs have wrinkles in them. The last time this happened we had winter weather that froze the handles off of plows. Rabbits are sitting around with a humped up look and field mice have wrinkles in their tails—if this means anything it means 30 degrees below zero from November to May. Cows are hunting around for pieces of red flannel to wrap up their tails in, and hogs are rooting their way to the middle of straw stacks. In America this is a sure sign that the highways will be blocked with snow for weeks at a time. There isn't the least doubt that we are in for a regular old winter buster.—Bradford Star.

When Shall we Water Fowls.

A question often asked and of considerable importance. An answer for a greater part of the year is quite easy; for during the period of exemption from frost, good fresh water should be continually on hand for their use. But it is an unsettled question as to the best plan for winter. During the cold winter months never give your fowls water until after sunup; allow their blood to be in circulation from the exercise gained through hunting for their breakfast, before they have a chance to drink. Do not give them ice-cold water at any time; nor is it best to give them warm water to drink. What is known as luke-warm water is the best. The reason for all this is that the fowls are never internally chilled or over heated from swallowing at this temperature all the water which they require for their work of consuming or grinding the food, and for egg-production.

He dropped her hand with a sigh of defeat.

Mutely she looked in his eyes, as though seeking in his glance some message that would convey the word she sought.

With one slow look at her hand as it lay where he had let it fall, he shook his head slowly and said:

"Give them the trick. You haven't a trump.

EMERY ENTERS BAIL

Penna. Gubernatorial Candidate Gives $2500 Bond in Libel Suit.

THE HEARING AFTER ELECTION

Former Judge Gordon, Mr. Emery's Counsel, Thanks McNichol's Lawyers For Their Courtesy—Accepts Action In Civil Suit.

Philadelphia, Oct. 23.—Lewis Emery, Jr., the Lincoln Party-Democratic candidate for governor, entered $2500 bail for his appearance at a hearing on the charge of criminal libel brought against him by State Senator James P. McNichol. The proceedings took place in Magistrate Mecleary's office. Mr. Emery did not appear in person. He was represented by his counsel, former Judge James Gay Gordon.

Mr. Gordon was accompanied by Rudolph Blankenburg. Mr. Blankenburg gave bond for $2500 and then Mr. Gordon took the bail piece to the Bellevue-Stratford, where Mr. Emery signed it.

Mr. Gordon then addressed the following letter to Mr. McNichol's lawyers:

"A. S. L. Shields, Esq.; George S. Graham, Esq., counsel for James P. McNichol.

"Gentlemen—In conjunction with Henry C. Niles, Esq., of York, I represent Lewis Emery, Jr., who has handed me your letter dated October 20, delivered to him Saturday at Bethlehem.

"In accordance with the suggestion contained in your courteous communication Mr. Emery will at once enter bail before the magistrate for a hearing.

"As arranged in conversation with you over the telephone bail will be entered to appear for a hearing when required, the time to be fixed by agreement between yourselves and us, having regard to the convenience of counsel and all the parties hereafter.

"Respecting the civil suit which you also advise Mr. Emery you have instituted on behalf of Mr. McNichol, I beg to say that I shall be glad to accept service of the same at any time that you send on the writ, and to promptly enter my appearance for the defendant.

"You will permit me, on behalf of Mr. Emery, to convey the assurance of his appreciation of the polite consideration for his public engagements manifested by your letter. very respectfully, JAMES GAY GORDON."

After former Judge Gordon's letter had been made public, Mr. Shields, of counsel for McNichol, made the following statement:

"I notice that Judge Gordon fails to say in his letter in regard to the agreement of counsel that the hearing is to take place 10 days after election. Judge Gordon elected to have a hearing after the election, but says nothing about it in his letter. I have just called him up on the 'phone and he says it was an oversight on his part and that he will notify the newspapers of the time for the hearing."

Later former Judge Gordon told the newspaper men that he had agreed, but upon Mr. Shields' request, that the hearing should be fixed not later than 10 days after the election.

Mr. Shields and former Judge Gordon held a consultation. This was in regard to the $250,000 slander suit filed in common pleas court on Saturday. As a result of the conference Mr. Gordon decided to treat the capias applied for as a summons and he accepted service of the writ on behalf of Mr. Emery.

Henry C. Niles, Lincoln Party state chairman, who accompanied Mr. Emery to Philadelphia, was quoted as declaring that Mr. Emery is enthusiastic over the legal contest. He said:

"Mr. Emery is confident that he can prove the charges he made in his Lebanon speech, to the effect that McNichol, when the election of a speaker in the legislature of 1901 was in doubt, on the result of that election depended Quay's return to the senate, McNichol asked to be allowed to see what he could do. Quay admitted defeat.

"Mr. Emery charged that McNichol went along the edges of the crowd and returned with five Democratic votes in his pocket. For these votes, which turned the tide of battle and resulted in the election of Mr. Marshall. Mr. Emery charged that McNichol paid $15,000 each. Mr. Emery is anxious that the hearing take place as soon as possible."

Calls Them Degenerate Exponents of Commercialism.

TELLS HOW HE FOUGHT "TRUSTS"

New York Gubernatorial Candidate Flays Leader of Tammany and Newspapers For Following "Tallyrand's Advice to Throw Mud."

New York, Oct. 23.—Political activity was renewed with energy by the gubernatorial candidates upon whom thus far has rested the burden of the campaign.

The Independence League had a meeting at Madison Square Garden, where all who could get inside heard William R. Hearst, the league's candidate for governor, and other candidates of the league and Democratic tickets.

Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee for governor, after a talk with State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff, left for Kingston. After seeing Mr. Hughes Timothy L. Woodruff sent out a warning to Republican leaders. The state chairman fears overconfidence and urges party workers not to belittle the strength of the opposition.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, also was out with a statement. He again declares Tammany's allegiance to the Independence League as represented in the Democratic state ticket and predicted the election of Mr. Hearst.

In Madison Square Garden Mr. Hearst opened his address by declaring he would be elected by 150,000 majority. He told how he had fought the "trusts" in the interests of the people. He first fought and killed the "gas and fuel trust" and next tackled the "ice trust" and put the "ice mayor" out of office. He then made war on the "beef trust" and the rebating system. Mr. Hearst continued:

"While I have been away New York newspapers have been lying as industriously and persistently and recklessly as ever. They have had this time a little assistance on the side from 'Boss' Murphy, the gentleman whom the newspapers have declared to be so enthusiastically for me. Murphy said that Judge Rosalsky had been put on our ticket for pay, but when Murphy was put on oath before the grand jury he was compelled to retract and admit that the statement was unfounded and reckless.

"If the lying newspaper proprietors and editors of this town were all put on oath before the grand jury there is hardly a political statement that they have made during the whole of this campaign that they would not be compelled to retract and admit false in every particular.

"There has never been a more pitiful sight than the crowd of New York newspaper proprietors, degenerate exponents of commercialism rather than journalism, who are spotted from head to foot with mire in which they have been wallowing and who frantically Tallyrand's advice: 'Throw mud, throw mud; some of it may stick,' and most of it has stuck to the throwers.

"They have told you that my newspapers were a trust, as if the people of New York were ignorant children and did not know what a trust was. A trust is a combination formed to raise the price of a product or limit the output.

"When I came to this city I did not increase the price of newspapers, but I reduced them, and I not only cut the price, but doubled the output.

"I don't want the support of the Captain Kidd's—the so-called captains of industry. I defy them, and they can vote for Hughes if they want to. I want to be elected by the people. I do not ask any man in this audience for his vote, but I want his good opinion."

Headquarters Seized By Opponents.

New York, Oct. 23.—William J. Conner, Democratic chairman, on information received from Patrick E. McCabe, Democratic state committeeman from Albany county, announced that Democratis headquarters at Albany had been seized by certain dissatisfied Democrats of the state, headed by ex-Mayor Thomas M. Osborne, of Auburn. Mr. McCabe stated that a party of upstate Democrats, dissatisfied with the action of the Buffalo convention and headed by Osborne, had taken possession of the Democratic headquarters, declaring themselves the rightful possessors. They then announced, he said, that with the headquarters as a base they intended to pursue an active anti-Hearst campaign throughout the state.

Blew Safe In True Western Style.

Minneapolis, Oct. 23.—Masked bandits held a crowd of excited citizens at bay for three hours at Sawyer, N. D., while companions blew a safe in the Sawyer state bank and took from it $4500. Over 300 shots were fired. The robbers escaped on horseback.

Voters Subpoenaed In Election Fraud.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 23.—The three election judges named Steiner, Cohen and Michaels, in the First precinct of Jefferson ward, in the recent city elections, accused by John A. Selph, defeated candidate for the city council, of fraud in conection with the election, after being adjudged guiltless by the Democratic executive committee, were arraigned in the hustings court to face charges brought against them by the grand jury. Practically every voter in the precinct has been subpoenaed to testify.

SUES FOR "SAFETY FUND"

Certificate Holders of Hartford Life Want It Distributed.

ASK COURT FOR RECEIVER

Company, Now Defunct, Collected $3 On Each $1000 Insurance As Surplus to Be Distributed When It Amounted to $1,000,000.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 23.—Legal formalities necessary to attach in the sum of $1,000,000, the property of the Hartford Life Insurance company and the Security Trust company, both incorporated under the laws of this state, were carried out by the sheriff in a suit brought against those two companies by attorneys representing about 20,000 certificate holders in various parts of the country to compel the distribution of a so-called "safety fund" of the company, which amounts to more than $1,000,000. A receiver is also asked for.

The defendants are ordered to make an accounting and to pay over to the receiver all sums received from certificate holders in connection with the "safety fund." The suit is returnable in the superior court at New Haven on November 6.

The Hartford Life Insurance company, which ceased active business in 1899, was organized on the stockholding plan in 1867, but since the former date has continued to collect premiums on outstanding certificates as if it were continuing business, it being alleged that in 1899 outstanding risks amounted to $90,000,000.

Prior to 1880 the company invented a plan of assessment life insurance which was designated as the "safety fund plan," by which $3 was collected on each $1000 of life insurance and put into a fund, the surplus of which, when the fund reached $1,000,000, was to be distributed among the certificate holders. This "safety fund" was to be deposited with the Security Trust company.

The plaintiffs in the suit claim that the stockholders having authorized the collection of the assessment for the "safety fund" since 1899, although the company had ceased to write any more insurance, have thus far failed to make a distribution of the fund, and that the intent is to keep that fund for their own advantage through a final wiping out of certificates due to lapses following increased and exorbitant assessments.

The plaintiffs include L. F. Perdue, Terre Haute, Ind.; E. S. Amsden, Ormond, Fla.; Charles Donnelly, Cocington, Ky.; Henry A. Weber, Detroit; J. M. Gordon, Cincinnati; H. C. Van Loon, Cincinnati; O. S. Chapman, Minneapolis; J. M. Bugg, Chipley, Ga.; Charles Ammen, New Orleans; William Booth, Clinton, Ill.; H. O. Oldham, Springfield, Mo., and C. H. Robinson, St. Paul.

THREE STRIKERS SHOT

They Stoned Police, Who Fired Volley From Revolvers.

New Castle, Pa., Oct. 23. — Three strikers were wounded, two perhaps fatally, in a riot following a strike of trestle men at the four local Carnegie Steel company furnaces in this city. The men struck for an advance and a body of strikers attempted to stop operations at the Red Jacket furnace by stoning the workers and Carnegie police.

The officers finally fired a volley from their revolvers and three of the strikers fell, the others running to cover. The injured were all foreigners.

The violence has completely turned the complexion of affairs and more trouble is feared.

Gerald Morgan Sent to Jail.

London, Oct. 23.—The man styling himself Gerald Morgan, and who said he was a member of the Harvard Rowing Club and claimed to be a nephew of J. Pierpont Morgan, was sentenced at the Old Bailey to 20 months at hard labor on the charge of having obtained a small sum of money by fraud from Dr. Dickey, resident surgeon of the Miller hospital at Greenwich. He had previously been convicted on several occasions.

Held Court On Train.

Mapleton, Ia., Oct. 23.—Court was held on a Northwestern train at Mapleton, and Claude Fisher, accused of assaulting Miss Minnie Baker, a school teacher, was bound over to a grand jury in $2000 bonds and taken to jail at Onawa. The authorities feared an attempt might be made to lynch Fisher, who was barely saved from a mob.

Slain and Dismembered.

Muscatine, Ia., Oct. 23.—The dismembered body of Patrick Nevins, an old man who lived near here, was found in the basement of his house after the dwelling had burned. Nevin's head, arms and legs had been cut off. There is no clue to the murderer.

Idle Negroes Threatened.

Jonesville, S. C., Oct. 23.—A proclamation was posted by white citizens warning every idle, indolent negro in the community that unless they go to work at once or leave the community drastic measures will be taken. The proclamation is the outgrowth of threats made against a prominent farmer by several negroes, one of whom was captured and severely whipped. He broke away from his captors and created a panic at a negro church by dashing into the building while services were in progress.

HIDDEN DANGER.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Bellefonte Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

Danger Signal No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of ediment and irregular of passage.

Danger Signal No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the coming of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cures sick kidneys and cures them permanently. Here's Bellefonte proof.

Mrs. Nancy Davis, of 246 East Logan Street, says: "I suffered a bad fall some years ago when living in Rochester. I thought at first that I had broken my back. I was unable to get up without assistance and from that time I suffered for years with a weak back and excruciating pains through the loins and through the small of my back. Sometimes I was completely prostrated and helpless. Doctors and medicines failed to help me and the pain continued until I got Doan's Kidney Pills. I took only a few doses before I began to feel better and when I had continued using them for a while I was thoroughly cured. My back regained its strength and the pain left me. I have had no return of the trouble since."

—The two new buildings at the Pennsylvania Match Company's plant are about completed, and will greatly add to the facilities of the company.

—The Republican County Committee have opened their headquarters on the third floor of the Temple Court. Samuel B. Miller is in charge. Everybody welcome.

Republicanism stands for fair play and "a square deal." So does the district's Republican candidate for congress, Capt. Barclay.

—At a Parish meeting of St. John's Episcopal church, a committee was elected looking to the erection of a church home and Guilds work shop, a most needed adjunct to the Parish and likewise a great benefit to the town.

Piper of Milesburg, and in the evening the Rev. J. M. Johnson of Altoona will preach. The public are cordially invited to attend.

—It will be remembered that some time ago the large barn on the Samuel T. Gray farm in Patton township was burned to the ground. The Misses Anne and Nora Gray at once decided to rebuild and the frame structure for the new barn was raised in position on Wednesday. The barn is a very big one, with heavy timbers and while it was intended to have a regular old fashioned barn-raising not enough of farmers and farmer's sons could be found in that neighborhood to handle the big frame work and it was necessary to send away to other parts of the county and hire men to assist in the raising. However, the work was accomplished quite successfully.

—The Philipsburg Journal says: "Henry Prentiss, of Bangor, Maine, and W. B. Quigley, of Lock Haven, are here looking after their property interests in this section. They are owners of 10,000 acres of land east of Philipsburg, and recent successful tests of coal on lands adjoining have encouraged them to look into the matter of the development of their property, or disposing of the same to parties interested in such matters." This, by the way, is the same tract of land in which one or more Bellefonters are interested and on which three good paying veins of coal have been found recently by prospectors. The tract is located in the vicinity of Beaver Mills.

—Mrs. Harry Macker of East High street, was taken to the Bellefonte Hospital Sunday for treatment.

If you believe in the equalization of taxation without favors to corporations or the wealthy, vote for Barclay.

—At the Gentzel—Beezer cattle sale in this place on Monday good prices were realized. Six months old calves brought from $20 to $30 while Milk cows sold as high as $71.

—Bellefonte is just the right size town to settle down in and enjoy life. Every thing for the comfort of life can be bought here and $10 will go as far as $25 will in larger cities. When you want to change your location, come to our town and build a nice comfortable home and be among the best people in the world.

—One of the finest attractions ever in Bellefonte was Wednesday night's production of "The Proud Prince" given by Nixon & Zimmerman's company headed by the eminent actor, Porter J. White. The scenery and costumes were fine, the play a beautiful one and every performer was first class in every particular. There was a larger and fashionable audience present.

—The old boatmen of Clinton and Lycoming counties expect to hold a reunion in Lock Haven sometime in November. The committee of arrangements is composed of D. T. It costs money to bring these teams here and "dead heads" are not appreciated.

—Merrill Trowbridge, a Williamsport lad, was severely bitten by a dog on Saturday. He and several more boys had gone out for chestnuts, taking the dog with them. The dog stepped upon a chestnut burr and became infuriated. He grabbed the boy by the head inflicting a nasty wound over the left eye. Dr. Heller closed the wound, a number of stitches being required.

His daughter, Miss Bettie Heinle, has entered Ludlam's school of elocution at Philadelphia, where she will take a thorough course. She had special ability along that line and some day may come into prominence.

—The board of directors, of the Pennsylvania Railroad company have decided to make a contribution of $1,000 to the Lewistown hospital fund, and this amount will be paid over to the treasurer of the hospital upon demand. The foundation of the hospital building has been completed, ready, for the brick work and the building will be completed long before the $65 000 required to pay for it can be raised.

—George W. Rumberger, the efficient deputy treasurer of Centre county, is now cocking his feet up on his desk in the court house and with a tooth-pick in his mouth is wearing a complaisant smile. The cause of all this "let 'er go easy" pose that he is assuming comes from the fact that he is another time a grandfather. The little heir is over in Patton, the son of Albert Rumberger, who is well-known to the young men of Bellefonte.

—The strange death of Clyde Auman, who was shot from a chestnut tree near Coburn, continues to interest the attention of the people in that section. Up to this time no arrests have been made and the public is becoming slightly restless over what, to some, appears to be indifference. But that is not the case. The proper authorities have taken the matter up and are following out every clue in a careful manner, and up to this time the work has not been without some results.

—Decisions have just been reached by many of the railroads that after Jan. 1 of next year, when the anti pass provision of the new rate law becomes effective, all officials must pay full fare for domestic servants who accompany them or their families when travelling. While the question was being discussed by Pennsylvania railroad officials and attorneys, it was suggested that a servant was a member of a railroad official's family and that as such should be entitled to a pass, especially a nurse who has charge of small children. It was ruled, however, that servants are not dependent members of railroad men's families, but are luxuries.

—The most permanent thing in life is death.

—It isn't necessary to foot a bill to have it run.

—The chestnut crop is bigger than the chestnuts which are decidedly runty.

—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Erb, on Spring street died Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock. Funeral Wednesday morning.

—Mrs. Earnest Whiting was taken to the Lock Haven Hospital Wednesday for treatment. Her husband is an employ of the Potter-Hoy Company and they live in Petrikin Hall.

—The Red men are going to give a Smoker in their Hall over the Centre County Bank next Monday night to their members. All members are earnestly invited to be present.

A vote for Capt. Barclay is a vote for a courageous soldier who rendered his country efficient service.

—James Gursaulus, aged 66 years a former resident of Tyrone, died at his home at Mileeburg last Friday. The remains were taken to Tyrone Monday and were interred in Grand View cemetery.

—The Reformed Church at Zion has been artistically frescoed by S. H. Williams under the direction of Linn McGinley. The church will be reopened and rededicated next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

—Dr. J. Angel, the well known eye specialist, will be at Millheim at the Musser House on October 31. He will be in Bellefonte at the Brockerhoff House on Thursday and Friday November 8th and 9th.

—Mrs. Corl, wife of Commissioner's Clerk James P. Corl, was taken to the Bellefonte Hospital Saturday night and was operated on Sunday. The operation was a success and Mrs. Corl is getting along very nicely.

—Rev. A. R. Lambert, who at one time was one of the prominent ministers in the Central Pennsylvania M. E. conference, and located at Pleasant Gap, but for the past year has occupied the pulpit of the South Park avenue M. E. church, in Chicago, has accepted a call to the LaGrange church in the same city. He is quite well known to a number of citizens in Bellefonte.

—Samuel S. Woods, of Lewistown, superintendent of the Pennsylvania Glass Sand company's plant several miles west of that town, met with a painful accident on Tuesday. He was walking across the floor in the portion of the plant in which the sand washing apparatus is located, when a plank which had become rotten gave way and the superintendent fell to the floor below, a distance of probably eight feet, striking on his right side. It was first believed that some ribs had been broken but an examination proved that such was not the case. His injuries are not serious.

—The ladies of St. John's Reformed church will hold one of their popular Country Stores in the room next to the Racket, in Crider's Exchange beginning next Wednesday, Oct. 31st, and continuing until the close of the week. About two hundred and fifty new aprons for sale, home made candies and cakes, home made bread a specialty, also oven dried corn-meal. A large variety of clothing, trimmed hats, together with an abundance of country produce will be offered for sale at bargain prices. Don't forget the opening day Oct. 31st.

—October 16th, the third Tuesday of October was National Apple day in the United States, it being designated as such by the National Apple Growers and Buyers association. The day was first set apart by an Illinois grower and has been observed for several years. It is felt that the apple is the staple and widely used fruit in the U. S. and for that there should be some observance to mark it as the national fruit the same as the national flower. In the great apple sections the day is marked by some observance, generally in the puplic schools such as each child taking an apple or in some other way One of the objects also sought after in the observance is an increase in the use of domestic fruit. There was no observance in this country, as it is not as great an apple section as many others.

—A few months ago W. A. Smith, of Hollidaysburg, purchased two burros at Manitou, Colo., paying $2.50 apiece. The little animals were crated, shipped here by fast express, and the express charges were $1.12. The narration of the journey of Mr. and Mrs. Burro all the way of 2,000 miles from Pike's Peak to Hollidaysburg would form a harrowing tale. Every time the cars pumped together or the train ran around a curve the animals were jolted against the sides of the crates until their tails departed from them little by little, hair by hair, and they arrived here, completely minus their tails. Mr. Smith declines to receive the consignment, asserting that he has no need in his business for burros, that have been robbed of their caudal appendages by a soulless corporations. Express Agent B. J. Shrover maintains that his company has substantially performed its contract. While the question is being argued pro and con, Mr. and Mrs. Burro are eating their heads off at Landlord John Shoemaker's stables.

Rooster Spurred Him.

Rev. W. B. Cox, pastor of the United Evangelical church of Bellefonte, is walking around with a very sore left hand, the result of rather a strange accident. On Saturday previous to the Centre county fair he was killing chickens to be served at the boarding house on the fair ground, kept by the ladies of his congregation. A large rooster became obstreperous and naturally objected to his head being placed on the execution block. In the shuffle the rooster stuck his spur into the minister's hand. The final windup, however, was that the rooster got it in the neck. Rev. Cox paid no attention to the slight injury until a couple days after when his hand began to get very sore and gave him much pain. It began to swell and finally he was compelled to go to Dr. Seibert and have it lanced. He did this the second time and still has considerable pain in the hand, yet it is thought the worst is over. Much anxiety was manifested lest blood poison would set in and cause trouble.

BRIDGE CONTRACT LET.

Owego Bridge Company Gets Contract for the Hubbard Bridge

The first bridge letting in Centre County under the new act of assembly took place in the Commissioner's office Tuesday. The bridge in question was the inter-county bridge over Beech Creek at Hubbard. There was a joint meeting of the County Commissioners of Centre and Clinton counties held Tuesday forenoon. Bids for the building of the bridge had been advertised far in advance and different bridge companies representatives were on the ground. The law required the bids to be in the hands of the Commissioners clerk by 11 o'clock and they were opened at 12 o'clock noon. A bid from the Illinois Bridge Company was handed in by their representative, Ex-Sheriff Woodring at half past eleven, to late to be considered. It is said their bids was about $3 000 less than the lucky bridge company who won the contract.

The joint meeting was organized and A. L. Merril, of Clinton county, was elected President, and C. A. Weaver of Centre county, secretary. The bids were opened promptly at 12 M, and were as follows: Alliger & Co., Wilkesbarre, $6900 00; Toledo Massilon Bridge Co., Pitteburg, $7100.00; York Bridge Co., York, $6,496.00; Canton Bridge Co., Canton, O., $6700.00; Penn Bridge Co., Beaver Falls, $6,716 00; A. Buchanan Co., Chambersburg, $6,674.00; Nelson Construction Co., Chambersburg, $6969.00; Owego Building Co., Owego, N. Y., $6485 00.

The Owego company having the lowest bid was awarded the contract. This is the company of which E. S. McNaul, is president and his bid was only $11.00 below that of the York Bridge Company of which Boyd Musser is the representative.

The Clinton county Commissioners who were present at the meeting are A. L. Merril, Alexander Flanagan and W. H. Hanna.

A Pioneer Lumberman Dead.

J. P. Finley, one of Williamsport's foremost citizens and a pioneer lumberman, who did much towards developing that city into a lumber centre, died at an early hour Monday morning.

As a member of the Finley-Young Lumber company, he was successful, but lost nearly everything in a fire that destroyed the plant several years ago. Although he was left almost penniless, he was never known to have complained of his ill-luck and was ever cheerful. For 15 years he was an alderman in Fifth ward and was serving a term that was to have expired in 1907 when he died. He had lived 86 years and death resulted from old age.
